Eligibility worker Interview Questions. "When interviewing for a position as an eligibility worker, expect to answer questions that will assess your ability to interview applicants and make sound evaluations regarding whether an applicant is eligible for government aid. You will likely be given mock government aid applications and be asked to determine whether each applicant qualifies for aid, and if so, how much aid he or she deserves."

This was many, many years ago. I never had any experience and I still passed the test. My previous roles involved research and data analysis. I got a job with the county as an eligibility worker after a month of passing the entrance exam and the in person panel review. I think you should worry about the panel interview more than the written test.
