Primer might be slightly misleading in the title, since this volume is more similar to a KONOS or Weaver volume than any primer I have seen. It differs in that it is more of a do-it-yourself unit-study approach than the aforementioned programs. (It reminds me somewhat of the original KONOS volume that was a fraction as big as the present volume.). The Prairie Primer is one large, plastic ...

The Prairie Primer - cathyduffyreviews.com

Stutson's rhyming alphabet book works its way over the prairie landscape. The time is early this century; the setting is a homesteader's handsome manse. These are drowsy days, the chores none too taxing, every neighbor and creature an amiable soul. ``I two Irons growing hot/breakfast porridge in the pot/When bowls are cleared away . . ./J a game of Jacks we play." Some will say that Stutson ...
