What's the Deal with "Furrries?"

The gay furry erotica artist known as CensorRottie told me that Tumblr was "a big site for bringing in interested viewers not normally associated with the furry fandom." "Many people on Tumblr just looking for or sharing real-life porn would occasionally find erotic art that touched their interests, introducing new appreciation for art to a previously unaware audience," he said in a Twitter DM.

The politics of sexuality remain perpetually in the news, and as usual, it's mostly for the wrong reasons. LGBTQ rights may have come a long way during the past twenty-five years, but recent anti-gay legislation in the U.S. (like Indiana's Religious Freedom Restoration Act) and violent anti-gay backlash elsewhere (e.g. Russia's draconian anti-gay policies) prove there's still a long road to be ...
